The objectives of this project are:

- To boost introduction of national as well as European intangible cultural heritage subjects with innovative technological methods as well as digital materials;
  - Enhance good practices among teachers and partnerships with stakeholders;
- To maintain the intangible cultural heritage alive with the help of new educational technologies, informal and formal activities and making sure that they are inherited to future generations;
  - To succeed in making the intangible cultural heritage visible, on its cultural, social and economic level and raise awareness of all pupils, their families, stakeholders and finally the society;
- To promote intercultural dialogue among participants;
- Enable students:recognise,explore and understand their own cultural assumptions;
- To increase the capability of our staff with the current curriculum which includes cultural heritage subjects through cooperation among partner schools, exchanges of good and innovative practices.

Results:

- Intangible cultural heritage material of the participant countries will be transferred to digital means and be protected.
- We will obtain teaching and learning resources and an updated curriculum which will increase the visibility, accessibility, the project will enrich multidisciplinary, teaching learning and educational activities which are related to the European common cultural heritage.
- Recognising the intangible cultural heritage of each community participating in the project will promote intercultural dialogue ,respect and acceptance of other cultures.
- It will give opportunities to combine and apply skills ,knowledge and expertise among teachers as well as wider professional networks. The capability of the teaching staff and institutions will increase. By participating actively in joint activities will result in increasing the participants' knowledge on common cultural heritage, foreign language learning and communication ,ICT skills, and provide them the chance to experience the educational system and the culture of the partner countries.
- This project will also contribute to Europe's sustainable and inclusive economic growth goals
